

SERVICE

Child and Youth Worker

A child and youth worker works to improve the physical, emotional, intellectual and social development of vulnerable children, youth and families. They focus on the growth and development of children and youth based on direct, day-to-day work with children and youth in their environment and develop relationships with children, their families, their communities and other interdisciplinary team members.

Do you love children? Are you creative? Are you patient? Do you like to be physically and mentally challenged? Do you have the maturity and strength to deal with highly sensitive situations? Are you able to leave your work at work?
